foreword

THE TATLER this year, it will be observed, is not so elaborate as it has been our custom to make it in former years.

We, like our brothers, have felt the call of the war, and, while we could not go to the front, we were determined that we, too, should make sacrifices. As a result of this feeling, the student body, by a unanimous vote, decided that a large part of the money usually expended on THE TATLER should be contributed to the Students' Friendship War Fund, reserving only enough to preserve the continuity of our publication by issuing what is little more than a year book of the Seniors.

We beg you, then, to deal very kindly with our little volume, remembering that, though it may have no other recommendation, it represents the cheerful sacrifice of a thousand sisters to the boys "over there."

THE EDITORS.

RUTHLESSNESS REACHES CLIMAX IN DESTRUCTION

BIG SHIP SENT TO BOTTOM

Country Stirred Over Dire News

Our entire country is fairly stunned by the news that the liner, Romance, was sunk yesterday afternoon about eight o'clock, off the coast of Maidentown, in the sea of Matrimony. Reports say that no trouble was suspected, when suddenly a U-boat, bearing the name of Dan Cupid, appeared above the water and attacked the vessel, taking away a large part of her left side and sending her to the bottom with her passengers and crew aboard. We can not yet realize the full horror of the situation, the loss of the hundreds of lives, the disappearance from the annals of our country of so many illustrious names.

Among those who are missing are: Governor E. Williams, of South Carolina; Minnie Surasky and Lydie Thornton, the world-famous ballet dancers; G. W. Hartzell, the greatest living American artist; W. Edwards, president of the Free-and-Easy School for Girls; Judge H. M. Carter, of the Supreme Bench; Thelma Bethea, prominent in the athletic world; Mary Wallace and Lylete Wilson, who for years have successfully conducted the Children's Hour of the Redpath Chautauqua; and an entire Musical Company composed of E. Clark, K. Earle, Rose Ervin, Mary Galloway, Lottie Hipp, R. Hodges, Ruth Quattlebaum, and Lois Williams. Others lost were: L. Turner, Louise Titman, Juanita Sowell, Mamie Seawright, Nellie Rogers, L. Lathan, R. Calvert, N. H. Black, I. E. Gault, Grace Lee, E. E. Moore, Mabel Reid, M. B. Rice, Polly Parker, Lizzy Hope, E. Fleming, E. A. Mosely, B. K. Harrell, O. L. Thompson, M. V. Harris, A. R. Heriot, J. L. Felder, Pearl McDermon, and Mary Jones.

ABLE TALK BY GORDON

A large crowd gathered at the City Hall last evening to hear P. E. Gordon, State Dietitian, in an able address on the use of the heart-shaped biscuit-cutter in the home. The speaker was introduced by Mayor Featherstone in a very graceful manner. The audience was held spellbound by this thrilling lecture. which will long be remembered as one of the most inspiring that our people have ever heard.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETS

At a recent meeting of the National Sunday School Association two South Carolinians were highly honored. M. L. Daniel was elected president and Miss Frances Blanding secretary for the coming year.

RED CROSS SHIP SAILS

A large crowd assembled to see the departure of the liner Woodrow Wilson as it left the New York harbor yesterday morning, carrying a thousand Red Cross doctors and nurses to the front. It will be of interest to our people to know that three South Carolinians—Misses Faye Carleton, Frances Williams, and Felicia Callahan—were on board.

WINTHROP COLLEGE NOTES

Winthrop College feels very fortunate in securing Miss Elizabeth Cooper as manager of the college farm, to succeed Mr. Whisonant, drafted.

We enjoyed quite a musical treat in our last Star Course number, consisting of solos, duets, trios, and quartets, by the following artists: Susan Langford, Mabel Platt, Helen Sandifer, Elizabeth Wilborn, and Jennille Haile, with Margaret McElwee at the piano.

We are looking forward to the best Summer School ever held in the South.

M. Bauer has been secured as professor of biology for the summer.

Miss Celeste Ervin will lecture on Kindergarten Methods. We feel that we have a treat in store, for Miss Ervin is not only well prepared in the theory of her subject, but she has had considerable practical experience in the well-known institutions conducted by Lucie Gasque, Mary Ray, Mary B. Van Landingham, and others.

Miss Edith Anderson will be our librarian during the summer session.

Kate LaBoon, for many years president of the United States Historical Association, will have charge of the department of history.

Cupid and Kaiser Bill seem to have conspired in taking our Training School as a target this year, for, as a result of the raids of these two fell enemies, we find it necessary to secure a new corps of teachers from first to last, without a single exception. Uncle Sam has called Mr. Magginnis and Mr. Jacobs, and, to fill these vacancies, we have secured N. Wylie and S. America DeLaughter. Cupid has put us in an even worse predicament, however, for the following get sixteen-pagers every day: Miss Sally Grant, beloved of a lusty sailor lad; Miss Mat Buchanan, the apple of a progressive young farmer's eye; and Misses Winton Parks, Leila Russell, Virginia Stone, Eileen Young, Bertha Loomis, Bell and Helen Coker, all of whom are entangled in the heart-strings of dashing young lieutenants. To fill these vacancies, we have made the following arrangements for next session: Grade I, Miss Alma Bethea; Grade II, Miss Margaret Massey; Grade III, Miss Inez Hudgens; Grade IV, Miss Wilmoth Bates; Grade V, Miss Nettie Schein; Grade VI, Miss Paulina Creed; High School, Misses Nelle Beckham, Frances Lewis, and Mary DeWalt Hunter.

The physical training department, under the direction of Misses Daisy B. Watson and Tabitha Stribling, is doing some fine work this year. Swimming is the center of the activity now, and many of the students are getting in excellent form for the swimming meet which is to be held next month.

McNAIR & CORK
PROFESSORS IN AQUATICS

We employ the McDermon method, by which the most hopeless can become perfect mermaids in three days' time.

THE "PALMETTO MAIDS"

Miss Martha Wilkinson, for many years director of physical training at Vassar College, has been given the commission of Colonel of the "Palmetto Maids," the woman's regiment which is being mustered here in our State. Miss Frances Major, the famous athlete, has been appointed Captain.

Among the recent volunteers are: Misses Pauline Zeigler, Flossie Williams, Minnie Irvin, Susie Lown, Cora Raines, Sallie Quarles, Annie Reid Poag, Kathleen Fairey, Mary Dunn, Emma Anderson, Ressie Boggs, Mary Burton, Annie Hall Byers, Annie Carmichael, Marion Cason, Lucile Cooper, Mary Cornwell, Flossie Crisp, Annie Mae Donnan, Mabel Glenn, Kate Hinson, Caroline Weston, Willie Mae Ludwick, Mary Rothrock, Lucinda and Molly Sams, Iola Saye, Lois Smith, Louise Stevenson, Mary Thomas, Bertie L. Wells, Rachel Whisonant, Ida Young, Grace Wells, Edith Walker, Corrie Watkins, Obera Walker, Valerie Trotti, Gladys Smith, Margaret Saye, Florine Simpson, Beatrice Merritt, Mary Lindsey, and Louise Evans.

We humbly trust that these brave girls, who are expecting to sail soon, will be able to escape the enemy U-boat, Dan Cupid, which carried so many of their sisters to the bottom.

Songs—

JUNIORS—(Tune: "My Bonnie")—

Class '17, your school days are ended,
O Seniors, your place we now take;
May we ever prove willing and worthy,
Like yours a good record to make.

Come back, come back,
Your Alma Mater to see, to see!
Come back, come back,
And welcome, yes, welcome you'll be.

SENIORS—(Tune: "Farewell to Thee")—

Farewell to you, the Gold and Blue,
To leave you brings a sadness to each heart.
Farewell to you, the class so true,
We'll ne'er forget the day we had to part.

JUNIORS—(Tune: "Taps")—

Farewell, farewell, farewell,
To the glorious Class of Old Seventeen!

SENIORS—

Silent o'er the campus field
The twilight shadows creep;
The wind that lulls the flowers to rest
Is fast asleep, is fast asleep,

Silent lest we break the charm
We watch the fading light;
How dark dear Winthrop's walls, how still
Is all to-night, is all to-night!

Slowly now we wend our way,
With eyes that dimly see;
The campus left alone at last
To memory, to memory.

Presentation of Senior Cap to Annie Carroll by Helen James
Acceptance of Cap by Annie Carroll
Final March with Presentation of Caps to Juniors by Seniors

Reach Your Hand to Me

Reach your hand to me, my friend,
  With its heartiest caress—
Some time there will come an end
  To its present faithfulness.
    Sometimes I may ask in vain
    For the touch of it again,
    When between us land or sea
    Holds it ever back from me.

Sometimes I may need it so,
  Groping somewhere in the night;
It will seem to me as though
  Just a touch, however light,
    Would make all the darkness day,
    And along some sunny way
    Lead me through an April shower
    Of my tears to this fair hour.

Oh, the present is too sweet
  To go on forever thus!
Round the corner of the street
  Who can say what waits for us?
    Meeting—greeting, night and day,
    Faring each the self-same way;
    Still, somewhere the path must end—
    Reach your hand to me, my friend.

SONG: My life with various troubles tossed,
My hopes are baffled, projects crossed;
'Tis every day such hours I spend;
I wonder when this scene will end!

ALEX SHUN

"A steam-engine in trousers."

Alex is lord of all he surveys—let him but speak the word and it is done. He is the "King-Maker" of the school, for when he indicates a certain person for an office none other dares show his head. We expect to see Alex out in the next campaign running against Kaiser Bill as world monarch, and we feel sure he will win; Bill can't hold a candle to him.

ANNIE MULE

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle, and low,
An excellent thing in woman."

Annie has become proverbial among us for strength of will—and of body, too—for she takes off all the blue ribbons in the weight events on field day. Annie's chief charm is her thrilling voice. We hope that she will not neglect this talent, but rather expect to hear her voice on foreign stages ere long.

GEORGIA CANE

"A creature not too bright and good
For human nature's daily food."

Dear, sweet Georgia! How we love her, dear, patient soul! Has she not stayed by us constantly since the day we entered college, softening hard places and sweetening our lives generally? "A friend in need is a friend indeed," and such a friend is Georgia.

The TATLER ala GUERRE

CARRIE SENE

"Her words of meekness scarcely told
A nature passionate and bold."

Carrie has always been one of the greatest powers in our class, for none can shed such a radiant warmth or such a brightening influence as Carrie, but look out for her temper! If you don't treat Carrie carefully, and step pretty lively around her, you may just look out for a hot time.

SALLIE LUNN

"A maid she was to all the country dear."

We are all very fond of Sallie, and, although she does not visit us quite as often as she did in antebellum days, we will not judge her harshly, but trust that she is "doing her bit" toward winning the war. Sallie is a moody creature—sad to-day and light tomorrow—but either way we love her, for she is always sweet.

ANN ÆSTHETIC

"When pain and anguish wring the brow,
A ministering angel thou."

Ann ranks secondly only to Georgia Cane in popularity, for she, too, is one of our greatest comforts. She has been our stand-by from the very first, for she has many times cheered us when we were in pain or trouble, and made us forget ourselves for a while. We have always had a feeling of security in knowing that if worst came to worst, Ann would take our part.

MIKE ROBE

"He has I know not what
Of greatness in his looks and of high fate
That almost awes me."

Did any one ever see such a saucy, impertinent fellow as Mike? He can't be still a minute, but is always prying into other people's business and trying to get his finger into every pie. In spite of Mike's provoking ways, however, we all recognize his ability, and during his college career he has been honored with the positions of Bread-Raiser-in-Chief and President of the Klabber Klub.

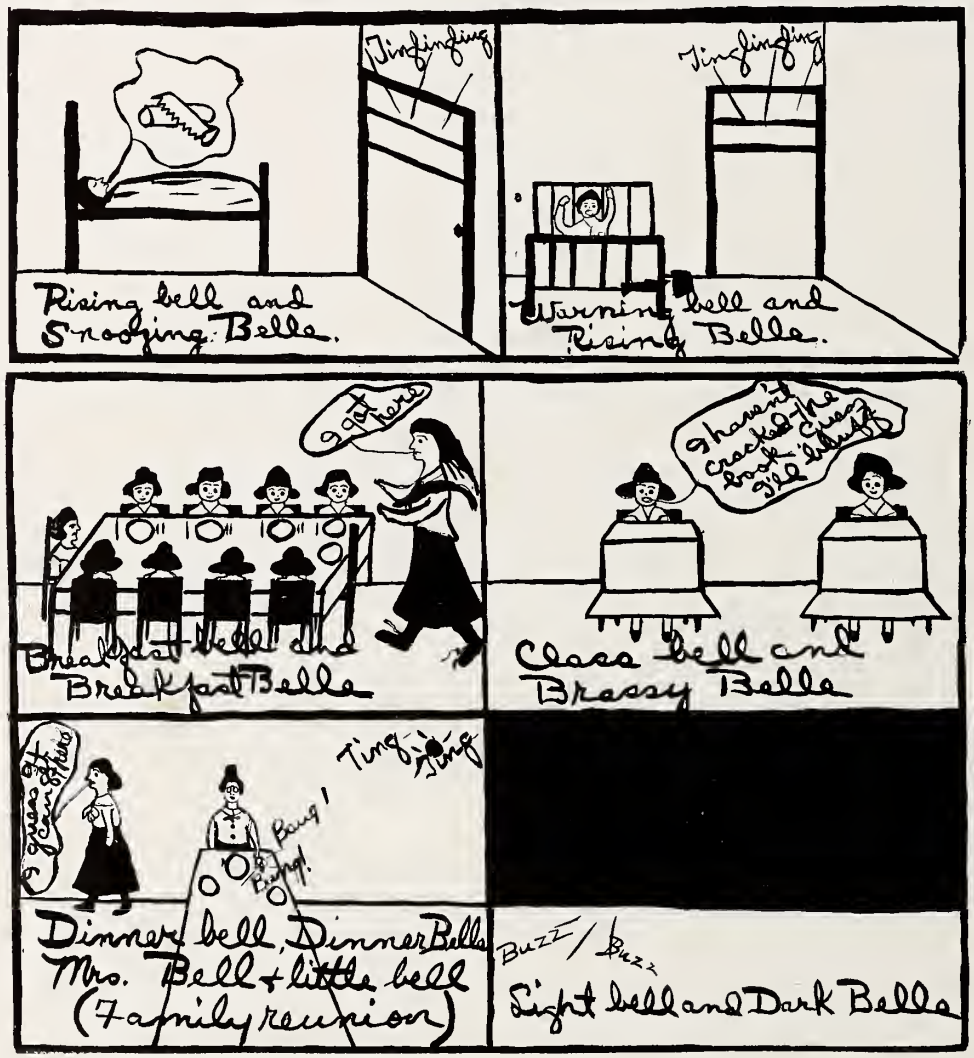
Yells and Songs

Backward, turn backward,
O Time, in your flight!
Rah!
Make us all young again,
Just for to-night!
Sis, boom, bah!

Ray!
Ashes to ashes,
Dust to dust!
Show us a man
We maidens can trust.
Faculty! Ray!

Darling, I am growing old,
Rah!
Silver threads among the gold
Shine upon my brow to-day!
Rah!!
Life is fading fast away.

The History of Winthrop bell and Belle at Winthrop



Memories

"Though time shall steal our years away,
The memory of the past shall stay
And half our joys remain."

How many bells have rung?

Are there any matrons around?

I'm broke as a convict. Can you lend me a dime to go to the movies, huh? Hey!

Pass the goat.

Miss ——— will not meet her classes to-day. (Buzz, hum, roar—of sympathy for the dear indisposed.)

I'm three weeks behind in five notebooks.

I'll have to go to the Infirmary. I'm worried sick over that test.

Are the slips in that mail?

I heard some little squeals over there in that side. We could take strict measures to effectively settle this trouble, but we don't want to.

(Snap! snap!) Look sharp, now. You are not thinking.

Young ladies, I could positively tear my hair to think that college freshmen——, etc.

Ah! [clap of hands] that's the point!

Where is the end of the line?

When Mrs. Bell rings her little bell—— (Ha! ha! ha!)

The train for Columbia will leave the back campus at 2 o'clock tomorrow night. (Lusty applause.)

They forgot to put the bridle on that cheese. Watch out, it will walk away.

The TATLER a la GUERRE

Shoot the zip. Thought I'd stop eating it, but I can't starve any longer, no matter how fat I get.

Who's got my tub? Nearly through in there?

Disturb not!

"O Johnnie! O Johnnie! How you can love——"

I made a double on that.

The mean thing gave me a three.

Does p-l-a-i-n spell striped?

Scat! Here, Fido!

Mr. Hoover says——

Are all the irons taken?

I counted eighteen red ones, five white ones, and four speckled ones.

Did you turn on the chicken light?

Is the glass cup dry? Where is the glass cup?

When will the quarantine be lifted?

Our Alumnæ

How we thrill at the name, and how proud our institution is of this fine body of lovable, sincere, capable uplifters of the communities of our State! We present here a hitherto unpublished photograph of our former graduates, a picture which was made during a reunion last Commencement. No words need be said in praise of this group of lovely young women. The picture can tell you much, but—

"To those who know them not, no words can paint,
And those who know them know all words are faint."

Woman's Feet Uppermost

Now don't get excited—women's feet are uppermost in people's minds these days.

Every one looks at your feet, so what availeth it to have a pretty face, or a pretty dress, and just wear any kind of shoes because you don't feel that you can afford to get a new pair?

If you must economize, economize on the dress if you want to keep in line.

It is no longer a luxury, but a necessity, to have your feet well fitted in attractive shoes.

It might be a difficult feat to have your feet on your mind, but it is difficult to keep them off your mind, if you are conscious that you are not looking and feeling your best.

Ever envy the girl who has on a dainty shoe? Sure you did.

Why don't you get you a pair just like 'em, and have the other girls envying you?

To have all the others green with envy, buy yours at
